

Online Workshop

Mean Field Games in Economics

LUISS University and the Einaudi Institute for Economics and Finance (EIEF)

7-8 September 2020

When: 7-8 September 2020, from 3 pm to 7 pm Rome time (C EST), i.e., from 8 am to 12 pm Chicago time (CDT).

Where: Talks on the Zoom platform blinks and access credentials will be sent in due times.

How: Each talk lasts 45 minutes that include presentation, Q&A, and interactions.
30 minutes break between talks for bilateral follow-ups and homemade coffee ☺

PROGRAM

Monday, 7 September

3:00 - Brief presentation of the workshop

3:15 - Pierre Cardaliaguet (Université Paris-Dauphin)
*On the Long Time Behavior of Mean field Games*

4:00 - Break

4:30 - Galo Nuño Barrau (Banco de España)
*Mean Field Games in Economics: Recent Advances and Future Challenges*

5:15 - Break

5:45 - Alessio Porretta (Università di Roma Tor Vergata)
*Travelling Waves and Balanced Growth Paths for the Lucas-Moll Equilibrium with Strategic Diffusion Model*

Tuesday, 8 September

3:00 - Fernando Alvarez (the University of Chicago) and Francesco Lippi (LUISS University and EEIF)
*Price Setting Equilibrium with Strategic Complementarities*

3:45 - Break

4:15 - Panagiotis E. Souganidis (the University of Chicago)
*Extended Mean Field Games*

5:00 - Break

5:30 - Benjamin Moll (London School of Economics)
*The great Lockdown and the Big Stimulus: Tracing the Pandemic Possibility Frontier for the U.S.*

6:15 - Concluding Remarks

Organizing Committee:

Alessandro Calvia, Fausto Gozzi, Francesco Lippi, Giovanni Zanco.

For any requests: acalvia@luiss.it