

Call for Papers
Deadline – June 1st 2010

Conference on “Transparency, Disclosure and Market Discipline in Banking Regulation”

Hosted by the Einaudi Institute for Economics and Finance (EIEF)

Sponsored by the Duisenberg School of Finance and the Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR)

Rome, 16-17 September 2010

The conference seeks to bring together first-rate current research on “Transparency, Disclosure and Market Discipline in Banking Regulation” building on the experience of the recent crisis.

Up to twelve papers will be selected and suitable topics may include, but are not limited to:

- a. Mark to market accounting
- b. Opacity of banks' assets
- c. The role of credit rating agencies
- d. Corporate governance, risk taking and disclosure
- e. Disclosure regulation
- f. Market discipline and its role during the banking crisis

Researchers wishing to submit papers for consideration should submit them by June 1st, 2010

Limited financial support for economy class air travel and lodging expenses will be available for university-based authors, discussants and chairpersons. Barring exceptional circumstances, central bankers and other public officials will be asked to cover their own expenses. Where financial support is offered, this will be in accordance with the new CEPR guidelines: www.cepr.org/meets/WKCN/misc/trp.pdf.

The programme committee is composed of Xavier Freixas (Universitat Pompeu Fabra and CEPR), Marco Pagano (U. of Naples and EIEF), Viral Acharya (NYU-Stern), Patrick Bolton (Columbia), Christian Laux (Frankfurt), Guillaume Plantin (Toulouse), Jean-Charles Rochet (Toulouse), Hyun Song Shin (Princeton), Daniele Terlizzese (EIEF) and Paolo Volpin (LBS).

To respond, please visit <http://www.cepr.org/YourProfile/Meetings> and indicate whether or not you wish to present a paper or would be willing to act as a discussant. The deadline for replies is 18:00 GMT on Monday, 15 March 2010. You may also like to read our Guidelines on how to register online for CEPR Meetings at www.cepr.org/meets/emo/Guidelines.htm.
